Whether it's renovating an 1880s-era Wicker Park two-flat, realizing the perfect Lake Michigan retreat or updating a Gold Coast penthouse, pushing the envelope is the name of the game for this Lakeview-based residential and commercial firm, conceived in 2007 by founding principal Kevin Toukourmidis and co-led with principals Tom Hagerty and Robert McFadden. Frequent embracing of sustainable materials signals an ethos as forward-thinking and strong as the visual vocabulary itself.
